A WORD OF WELCOME

We wish to welcome all to Vindobona (commonly referred to as Vienna or Wien) in our function as directors of the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot. After months of dealing with the niceties of high end wine making, problems associated with costs and document production or discovery and some last minute changes and re-changes in the order of presentations most of you have been looking forward to finally come to the oral hearings in Vienna. It is, of course, a challenge for the students to present their arguments for the claimant or respondent in regard to matters they have never thought about before and to do so to lawyers and law professors from other countries. For so many it is also a challenge to present those arguments in a foreign language. And every year the challenge is met in an admirable way.

That is one reason why, irrespective of the individual final rankings, everyone who participates is a winner! Notwithstanding the competitive elements you should approach the Moot with the Olympic spirit: it is not winning but taking part that is essential. The Moot is not only an intellectual challenge. Over the years it has developed into a gathering of more than 2000 students from all parts of the world who have worked on the same problem for the past six months. It is easy to meet the other students and you would have missed a wonderful opportunity if you leave at the end of the week without having made many new friends or having deepened the friendship developed at one of the numerous Pre-Moots. The social life that is offered to you this week is as much a part of the Moot as are the arguments.

The Moot is also a gathering of over 900 lawyers, law professors and other arbitration practitioners from the entire world. Some are senior professionals. Others were recently student participants themselves. All have come to participate in the excitement and enthusiasm of the students as the challenge of the arguments is met. They know that they are seeing the next generation of colleagues and are happy to contribute to the formation of that generation. Without their generous support in ranking memoranda and acting as arbitrators the Moot would not be possible.

We should like to close this short welcoming statement with an invitation. Join us again in Vindobona. Let the Moot become a regular part of your life and help us to maintain its spirits. It is a special event bringing together students, lawyers and law professors from all continents who are interested in international commercial law and arbitration. A number of careers in international arbitration and commercial law have started here and friendships were formed which cross national and cultural boundaries.

We look forward to seeing many of you at the Dachgeschoss and please do not hesitate to approach any of us for comments and suggestions.

DIRECTORS OF THE MOOT

A WORD OF WELCOME

Dear Participants,

I wish to add my words of greeting to those expressed by the directors of the Moot. I look forward to meeting the many friends I have made during the past 20 years and especially to making new friends this year.

The students, lawyers and professors who have participated the past 20 years have made it the wonderful event that it has become. The central activity of this week is, of course, the arguments for which you have prepared. But the arguments are only the central activity, they may not even be the most important part of what this week can offer you.

The Moot has become a platform for many discussions about arbitration oriented at all levels from students for whom this is still a new subject to the most experienced arbitration practitioners. The city of Vienna is a wonderful location and there is much to see and to learn about. Take advantage of the guided tours offered by the Moot Alumni Association. It will be worth your while. Above all else, take this opportunity to meet your new colleagues. You have so much in common, even when they come from places with different ways of doing things. I am not the only person who has made many new friends at the Moot.

Some of you will go into the field of international arbitration. Some others will engage in international activities that do not directly involve arbitration – perhaps negotiating the contract about which this year's arguments are focused. Many, perhaps most of you, will not go either route. But whatever the future may hold for you, I hope you remember the Moot as one of the highlights of your legal studies.

PROF. ERIC E. BERGSTEN,
FOUNDER OF THE MOOT

A WORD OF WELCOME

Dear Participants,

After so many months of hard work you are all finally in Vindobona. Some of you are recurring friends and familiar faces, but many of you are here for the very first time.

As you may have been told, in the next week, you'll meet several people, from different parts of the world, with different backgrounds and different career plans. You will now share, with many past participants of the moot, a unique experience. You'll certainly make friends. Some will constitute your future professional network, others may become friends for the rest of your life. Some of you may even become moot couples. Indeed, the moot has become quite an important event in the life of many students and professionals, who come back every year, once more as speakers, or as arbitrators or coaches.

The MAA - Moot Alumni Association, provides you another way to keep contributing to the moot, to keep in touch with your network and to have access to interesting opportunities. Among its many projects, it is possible to mention the Vindobona Journal, our very own publication, the participation in UNCITRAL sessions, where delegates from all over the world discuss many issues in fields like arbitration, conciliation, insolvency and securities; and also the International Law Project, through which we assist the further development of the CLOUT and the Pace databases. We also organize many events during the moot week, such as the CISG Conference and the Generations in Arbitration Conference, and many social events ahead.

If you want to know more about the MAA or if you already are a member and wish to contribute to our work, please come talk to us at our table in the Juridicum! We are always looking for new volunteers and ideas.

Finally, as you should know by now, the Moot does not end in the pleadings you'll have in the coming days. So rest assured that all of you, now alumni of the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot, are more than welcome to join every year not only the MAA, but also the Moot and its community. Welcome to the moot family!

PEDRO MARTINI,
MAA PRESIDENT

INTRODUCING THE MOOT

GOAL OF THE MOOT

The goal of the Moot is to foster the study of international commercial law and arbitration for the resolution of international business disputes through its application to a concrete problem of a client and to train law leaders of tomorrow in methods of alternative dispute resolution.

NATURE OF THE MOOT

The business community's marked preference for resolving international commercial disputes by arbitration is the reason this method of dispute resolution was selected as the clinical tool to train law students through two crucial phases: the writing of memorandums for claimant and respondent and the hearing of oral argument based upon the memorandums -- both settled by arbitral experts in the issues considered. The forensic and written exercises require determining questions of contract -- flowing from transaction relating to the sale or purchase of goods under the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and other uniform international commercial law -- in the context of an arbitration of a dispute under specified Arbitration Rules.

ORGANIZER OF THE MOOT

The Moot is organized by the Association for the Organization and Promotion of the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot (Verein zur Veranstaltung und Förderung des Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot). Institutional members of the Association are Pace University, Queen Mary (University of London), Stockholm University, University of Vienna, Austrian Arbitration Association, Austrian Federal Economic Chamber, Moot Alumni Association, and the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (Secretary of UNCITRAL is a member ex officio).

WILLEM CORNELIS VIS

A world-recognized expert in international commercial transactions and dispute settlement procedure, Willem Vis was born in Utrecht and read law, economics and philosophy at Leyden, Nijmegen, Strasbourg and Magdalen College, Oxford. He graduated from Leyden University and Nijmegen University in the Netherlands.

Professor Vis began work for European co-operation in 1957 as a member of the Council of Europe Secretariat, in its human rights and legal affairs directorates and later, in 1965, became Deputy Secretary-General of the International Institute for the Unification of Private Law (UNIDROIT) in Rome. In 1968 he moved to the United Nations Secretariat in New York, where he became senior Legal Officer, then Chief of the International Trade Law Branch of the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs, and the Secretary of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL).

He served as Executive Secretary of the Vienna Diplomatic Conference that adopted the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. He helped craft the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

He was Representative of the Netherlands to the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law and served as Chair of its Working Group on International Payments. While on the faculty of the Pace University, School of Law, Professor Vis continued to participate in the development of international commercial law.

MOOT ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Founded in 1996, the MAA originates from and is dedicated to the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot. Today, the MAA has grown from a mere alumni organization into a world-wide network of leaders in law and business that spans across all continents.

Members comprise lawyers, scholars, judges, domestic and international civil servants, managers, consultants as well as students specializing in widely diversified fields of law and business. They practice in all fields of commercial law, dispute resolution, financial services, media, telecommunications and management consultancy, both in a domestic and an international context. The MAA is a unique network which shares information and know-how with its members.

In addition to its commitment to the Willem C. Vis Moot the MAA focuses on the promotion of education in contemporary issues of international commercial law and alternative dispute resolution. The MAA organizes and hosts major international conferences (e.g., Generations in Arbitration). Further, the MAA publishes the Vindobona Journal of International Commercial Law and Arbitration, a bi-annual law journal backed by a distinguished Board of Advisors. As a joint international initiative, together with Queen Mary College (London) and Pace University (New York), the MAA launched a case translation project, which provides for CISG cases to be translated into English. In addition, the MAA collaborates with the UNCITRAL and Pace University on the CLOUT abstract project. The MAA also publishes a membership news bulletin, in which career opportunities and experiences are shared with its members.

From the very beginning, the MAA took an active role in supporting and promoting the Vis Moot East which for the first time took place in Hong Kong in 2004.

We invite you to join our growing community. Please feel free to contact any MAA official at the MAA Desk or Lounge available at the various venues in Vienna and Hong Kong. Inform yourself about your benefits of a membership. You may also check out our website at www.maa.net for further information.
